

R.E.A.P.

REAP stands for Read, Examine, Apply and pray and it will take you anywhere from 10 to 45min a day depending on how much you want to get out of it.

There are five steps

Step 1 is to grab a pen, your Bible, your REAP notebook and either your diary or piece of paper and to find yourself a quiet space to do your study. This is important. Finding the right time and space is crucial to getting the most out of your Bible study. If you're not a morning person then don't try and squeeze it in before the day starts. Likewise if you're falling asleep over the 6 o'clock news then maybe that's not a good time either. So find a time that works with your body clock and a space where you won't be interrupted. The reason I said include your diary or a piece of paper is because often the moment you get some space to yourself your mind quickly fills with all the things you've got to do the next day. Don't try and stop those thoughts just note them down on the piece of paper or your diary as they come and carry on.

Step 2 is to begin the REAP process. So open your Bible to the readings for the day and begin by praying and asking God through the Holy Spirit to teach you something from the days readings. That you have an open mind to whatever God may want to say to you. And then start reading. Now to begin with you might find the amount of reading a bit overwhelming. Don't worry, if you can only read one of the passages for the day that's fine. Eventually you will get into the habit of reading more and more.

As you read be open to what God might be saying to you through the passage or passages

Having read the passage look for a verse that particularly spoke to you and write it out into your journal. First put the date at the top of the page.

Step 3 is to examine the passage. Write down what struck you and caught your attention in what you read? What is the writer wanting his audience to take on board or learn? What did you discover or learn about God and his character from the passage? What did you find challenging? What might God be saying to you from the passage? Write the answers to all these questions down or diagram it pictorially.

Step 4 is to apply what we have learnt.

Ask how what you have read applies to your life right now. Is there anything that the passage suggests you might need to do, change, repent of, put into practice. Is there someone you need to go to and say sorry for? A situation you need to do something about? Is there maybe a promise or an encouragement for you. Take a moment and write down the answer to the question. "How will I be different today because of what I have just read and studied?" If you're the creative or artistic type you might draw a picture.

Step 5 is Prayer.

Write down a prayer that captures what you have learnt and decided to do as a result of your reading and study. Asking God to help you hold onto what you have learnt and decided to do. Once you've written it down pray the prayer and maybe carry on praying for what's happening in the church, your life, friends lives etc.
